[2015 Hall of Fame Inductee John Disterdick

"Ringside Opponent" - He's such a tough match up with his height and uses his reach well. Then you take his conditioning, he's all most unbeatable.

Our first Masters Boxing Hall of Fame inductee is no stranger to awards, belts and wins. He announced his retirement from masters boxing last year finishing with an undefeated record and 11 Championship titles wrapped to his waist line (10 Ringside, 1 Title). Though retiring from Boxing, John still plans to keep active competing in the Senior Olympics, Rowing, Triathlons and Cycling to name a few of the other competitions he'll be looking to make an impact in.
